ACT

To amend—

- the Attorneys Act, 1979, so as to further regulate the powers of the board of control of the Attorneys Fidelity Fund;
- the Child Justice Act, 2008, so as to further regulate the evaluation of the criminal capacity of a child; to provide for the delegation of certain powers and assignment of certain duties by the Cabinet member responsible for social development in respect of the accreditation of diversion programmes and diversion service providers; to repeal provisions that make the Criminal Law Amendment Act, 1997, applicable to persons under the age of 18 years; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

Amendment of section 78 of Act 53 of 1979, as substituted by section 28 of Act 87 of 1989

1. Section 78 of the Attorneys Act, 1979, is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (8) of the following subsection: 5

“(8) The court may on application made by the society of the province concerned or by the board of control, in consultation with the society of the province concerned, and on good cause shown, prohibit any practitioner from operating in any way on his or her trust account, and may appoint a curator bonis 10 to control and administer such trust account, with such rights, duties and powers in relation thereto as the court may deem fit.”.

Amendment of section 11 of Act 75 of 2008

2. Section 11 of the Child Justice Act, 2008, is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for subsections (2) and (3) of the following subsections, 15 respectively:

“(2) In making a decision regarding the criminal capacity of the child in question—

(a) (i) the inquiry magistrate, for purposes of diversion; or

[(b)] (ii) if the matter has not been diverted, the child justice court, for purposes of plea and trial, must consider the assessment report of the probation officer referred to in section 40 and all evidence placed before the inquiry magistrate or child justice court prior to diversion or conviction, as the case may be, which evidence may include a report of an evaluation referred to in subsection (3); and

(b) the inquiry magistrate or the child justice court must consider the cognitive, moral, emotional, psychological and social development of the child.

(3) An inquiry magistrate or child justice court may, on own accord, or on the request of the prosecutor or the child's legal representative, order an evaluation of the criminal capacity of the child referred to in subsection (1), in the prescribed manner, by a suitably qualified person[, which must include an assessment of the cognitive, moral, emotional, psychological and social development of the child]."; and

(b) by the insertion after subsection (4) of the following subsection:

"(4A) The provisions of section 77(2), (3) and (4) of the Criminal Procedure Act apply with the changes required by the context to a report referred to in subsection (4).".
