SECTION 1

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000) prescribes that a Public Body must provide details of records held by such Body so that any request for information may be accommodated.

The details of records kept by a Public Body are contained in a book commonly known as a manual. The manual therefore relates to the records kept by the Public Body. The records kept pertain to the business / functions of each and every unit. To distinguish between the functions / business of each unit, the records of each unit are numbered differently. Each record also carries a disposal instruction.

Apart from records, also called files, the manual also contains information on the addresses of the Head of the Department as well as the Information Officer/s of the Public Body and also the name of each unit in the Public Body, its core function and a list of all records kept by the Public Body.

SECTION 4

RECORDS IN THE POSSESSION OF THE DEPARTMENT, WHICH ARE AUTOMATICALLY AVAILABLE

INTRODUCTION

This chapter deals with the provisions of section 14(1) (d) of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, which prescribes that a body must provide details of records in its possession in order to give effect to requests for access to information.

It is important to note that the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development is divided into two main categories with regard to information/records in its possession:

- Directorates performing core business – masters, courts, etc.
- Directorates performing support functions – HR, PEC, ISM, etc.

Included in this manual is the subject of files. Files are the tool used to preserve records in the Department. Each file has a number and a brief description of the records kept in the file as well as the subject of the file. Very important – each file has its own number, the opening and closing dates and the disposal instruction of that file. The disposal instruction is important because it determines what must happen with the file after a specific period of time has lapsed, e.g. A10 would mean that the file must be sent to NASA (National Archives of South Africa) ten years after the closing date on the file cover. The Ministry for the Department has its own record keeping system, similar to that of the Department.

ACCESS TO RECORDS IN TERMS OF SECTION 14(1) (e)

The Minister must, in terms of section 15(2), publish in the Government Gazette a notice of records that are automatically available.

This chapter describes in general terms the records that are automatically available. This information is also available on the website of the Department: www.justice.gov.za.
