MINISTER OF JUSTICE AND CONSTITUTIONAL DEVELOPMENT, MMAMOLOKO KUBAYI, TO RECEIVE PEOPLE'S MARCH STATEMENT AT CONSTITUTIONAL HILL

Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development Mmamoloko Kubayi will receive the People's March Statement at Constitutional Hill in support of efforts to affirm South Africa's national sovereignty and democratic gains.

The March, organised by the governing party the African National Congress (ANC) and its Alliance partners alongside various stakeholders, will take place on Human Rights Day, 21 March 2026, as part of a nationwide programme.

The March will also be used to commemorates the victims of the Sharpeville Massacre and marks 30 years since the adoption of the Constitution.

Proceedings will begin at Mary Fitzgerald Square and conclude at Constitutional Hill, forming part of the Minister's ongoing engagement on safeguarding South Africa's constitutional democracy.
