Dear Sir/Madam

INVITATION TO ATTEND A WORKSHOP ON 'SEXUAL OFFENCES: ADULT PROSTITUTION' CONDUCTED BY THE SOUTH AFRICAN LAW REFORM COMMISSION

The South African Law Reform Commission (the Commission) cordially invites you to request an invitation to attend a workshop on Sexual Offences: Adult Prostitution. The purpose of the workshop is to discuss the proposals contained in the discussion paper on Sexual Offences: Adult Prostitution and to focus on law reform initiatives in this regard. The Commission will consider inputs made and use insights gained during the deliberations in drafting its report on Sexual Offences: Adult Prostitution and its final recommendations to the Minister for Justice and Constitutional Development. A copy of the provisional programme is attached.

The Commission will be conducting workshops in Pretoria (19 May 2009), Johannesburg (26 May 2009), Cape Town (28 May 2009), Durban (2 June 2009), Polokwane (11 June 2009), Nelspruit (18 June 2009), Mmabatho (23 June 2009), Kimberley (25 June 2009) and Port Elizabeth (30 June) 2009.

Kindly complete the form attached to the invitation and fax it to 086 686 3938, 086 686 3923 or 086 681 7274 or mail it to capienaar@justice.gov.za, or dclark@justice.gov.za or napillay@justice.gov.za. You may also contact Ms Pillay by telephone (012) 392 9571/40 to request an invitation.

The Commission will provide light refreshments for lunch. Workshop participants will be responsible for their own transport and accommodation.

A copy of the Discussion Paper is available on request from the Law Reform Commission or may be accessed on the Law Reform Commission's website at: <http://www.salawreform.justice.gov.za>. Some copies of the discussion paper and summaries thereof will be made available at the workshop.

We look forward to seeing you at the workshop!

Yours sincerely

Dellene Clark
